TEACHING UNIT FOR FRENCH NON-SPEAKING STUDENTS ARRIVING TO FRANCE - LYCÉE ANTOINE BOURDELLE

Who is concerned ?

Allophone students - i.e. whose first language is not French and who are newcomers to France
- usually don't master French well enough to follow the regular curriculum.
That's why they are welcome at Antoine Bourdelle High School and integrated in a teaching unit called UPE2A (1).

With what objectives ?

For one school-year, these students will benefit from a specific FSL(2) program of studies in parallel with their regular lessons. This program will be combined in their timetable (whether they are at the LGT(3) or at the LP(4)).
Fluency in French is a key issue for newcomer students in terms of academic success and social inclusion

Curriculum / Content of the training program :

- Lessons in FSL (French as a Second Language).
- Preparation for the DELF language Diploma (Diplôme d'Etudes en Langue Française).

And then ?

Students are ready and can then continue their secondary education in regular High School classes.

- (1) : Unité pédagogique pour élèves allophones arrivants.
- (2) : FSL = French as a Second Language.
- (3) : Lycée Général et Technologique.
- (4) : Lycée Professionnel.
